

Extra-Financial Risks: Measuring What Matters Most

GMI Ratings, the leading independent corporate governance, ESG and financial transparency research and ratings expert, invites you to a private event on extra-financial investment risks.

Events are in London (2 October) and Amsterdam (5 October).

The presentations and discussions will focus on:

- the evolution of corporate governance, from corporate accountability into ESG analysis;
- using non-traditional risk metrics in accurately identifying companies with an elevated risk, including regulatory enforcement actions, class-action lawsuits, financial restatements and other events likely to cause significant drops in equity valuation;
- portfolio risk assessment and relationship-mapping tools to support investment strategies, engagement and compliance.

Speakers include Robert Monks, James Kaplan, Walter Torous, Howard Sherman, Ric Marshall and Agnes Grunfeld.

London: 2 October | City of London Club | 8.30am – 2.30pm

Amsterdam: 5 October | Amsterdam Museum | 9am – 1pm

RSVP: Events-Europe@gmiratings.com